Mr. Speaker, the time has come to finish what we began in 1984, and I urge my colleagues to join me in voting for this important legislation.

COMMODITY FUTURES
MODERNIZATION ACT OF 2000

SPEECH OF

HON. THOMAS W. EWING

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, October 19, 2000

Mr. EWING. Mr. Speaker, the Commodity Exchange Act now bans the offer and purchase of single stock futures products in the United States. The bill would lift that ban, subject to joint CFTC and SEC regulation, effective in one year for public customers and 8 months for institutional investors. U.S. investors today also are barred from buying single stock futures traded on foreign exchanges. Section 221(j) of the bill includes an amendment to the Commodity Exchange Act that would immediately allow U.S. investors to buy single stock futures—even those based on U.S. stocks—that are traded on foreign exchanges. This disparate treatment of U.S. and foreign exchanges has been pointed out by numerous futures and securities exchanges, and other financial industry representatives.

If U.S. customers are going to be allowed to purchase futures on equities traded overseas, the products should be subject to the same timing restrictions and oversight that is applicable to domestic security futures products. Section 221(i) would allow foreign exchanges to offer in the U.S. and U.S. investors to purchase, security futures products only under terms and conditions acceptable to the SEC and CFTC. Section 22(j) of the bill thus may conflict with Section 221(i) of the bill. This issue needs to be addressed before the bill is sent to the President.

OLDER AMERICANS ACT
AMENDMENTS OF 2000

SPEECH OF

HON. DONNA M. CHRISTENSEN

OF THE VIRGIN ISLANDS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 24, 2000

Mrs. CHRISTENSEN. Mr. Speaker, I support H.R. 782, the Older Americans Act Amendments and I commend its sponsors for getting it to the floor of the House today. This program has not been reauthorized since it expired in 1995, but continued only through annual appropriations.

Today when we pass this reauthorization measure, we can finally say to our Senior citizens that we care about their concerns, enough to provide the support and assistance they need.

Mr. Speaker I especially applaud the bills provisions with regard to older people of color, who are often poorer, lack health care services and experience greater difficulties having their needs met.

The seniors in my district have benefited greatly from this act in the past and from the annual appropriations to continue the services—from the elderly nutrition programs to the home care for the frail elderly and the senior community service employment program. They are very proud of the variety of needed services they give to the community through this latter program.

We are also pleased that this reauthorization includes a national family caregiver support program. Many families across the country will be helped through this important measure.

Mr. Speaker, this reauthorization is long overdue and I am pleased to join my many colleagues in supporting it.

As Camp Commander at Camp Prado, CC #28, she represents the institution with professionalism and distinction, serving as mentor, role model, and example.

Her diligence in handling matters has been an incentive for the staff at Camp Prado and staff from other camps to follow in her footsteps by utilizing professionalism in dealing with all issues. Hazel reminds all who work with her of the importance of working together as a team, by her own diligence and actions.

Throughout the course of her distinguished career, Hazel has been assigned numerous special tasks and projects, including Rape and Assault prevention, and auditing various institutions. Her peers and supervisors have commented often on her enthusiasm and self-motivation.

Her continuous rating of outstanding in performance reports, and numerous awards and commendations issued to her from her superiors speak for themselves regarding her achievements throughout the years, not only as Camp Commander and Lieutenant but as officer and sergeant.

A devoted wife to Charlie White, a retired CDF Fire Captain, Hazel has three adult daughters, and she is also a devoted grandmother. She has been very giving to the community, participating in local youth sporting activities.

People comment on her quick laugh, her sense of humor, and her persistent optimism about the world.

In short, she is a model of excellence we can all follow, at work and in our community. It is my hope that she enjoys a productive, happy, and long retirement. I wish her all of our hopes, all of our thoughts, all of our good prayers, as she embarks upon this new period in her life.
